The Massachusetts Mortgage Association, MMA, currently has more than 350 members and is looking to grow its industry partners sponsorship program over the course of 2006.

It is also important to the MMA to grow its members and sponsors professionally and educationally over the next year.

That's why the MMA is asking for YOUR help! The MMA wants to grow the Association and industry with more mortgage brokers and affiliated industry partners as they join the only Massachusetts organization that is exclusively focused on enhancing the image and business of the mortgage broker industry.

The level of sponsorship you decide to choose in supporting the MMA is up to you. Look at all the great benefits available to you for supporting the MMA in 2006.
